

Become a Windows collaboration display Certified Reseller and Earn an Instant Rebate

Did you know that you can earn a $1,700 instant rebate just by passing the Windows collaboration display (WCD) Certification course?

Available on the Sharp Success Center under Training/Sharp Smart Training, the certification course includes seven short modules of training designed to outline the market opportunity, the product details and how the product fits within the Microsoft ecosystem. It also covers the incremental opportunities with the Azure IoT Sensor data, software applications and an ecosystem of partners Sharp is working with to bring unique WCD-centric solutions to market.

The opportunities around the WCD are immense, and the course is designed to help sales teams get a strong understanding of how to best position this product within your collaboration portfolio.
