

Global Training Credit Program

Maximize Your Technology Investments

The latest technology requires the right skills and knowledge to enable you to get the best return on your investment. Training is essential to ensure you:

- Succeed in your IT road map.
- Improve productivity and efficiencies.
- Maintain your competitive edge.

Simplify How You Buy Training

Save time and streamline the buying process by bundling training and product investments into one purchase order with Global Training Credits (GTCs). As a Global Knowledge Authorized Learning Partner, we are able to exclusively offer you GTCs as an easy and economical way for you to purchase training. Secure your funds today and determine your specific courses, dates and delivery formats later.

Get Quality Training from the Industry Expert

Purchase credits from us and redeem them for any type of IT and business skills training delivered by Global Knowledge, the world's leading learning services and professional development solutions provider.

Choose Training From Top Brands and Topics

GTCs are not vendor specific and give you access to a large selection of IT and business skills courses. Train on leading brands such as Amazon Web Services, Cisco, IBM, Microsoft, Red Hat®, SAP and VMware. You will also be able to select training on in-demand topic areas such as project management, cybersecurity and cloud. View the complete course catalog at <https://gtc.globalknowledge.com>.

Leverage the GTC Advantage

- Easy to purchase in $100 increments.
- Redeem for a large selection of IT and business skills training.
- Manage your credits 24/7 through the GTC portal.
- Stay on budget and leverage your purchasing power.
- Utilize a credit that can be used worldwide for all delivery formats.
- Select courses, dates and locations when you're ready to train, not when you purchase.
